

Managing Teams

TheEDGE Academy June 2017

I. The Importance Of Teams

- A. We can't do anything without leaders, but we can't do anything without teams!

There are no leaders without followers.

- B. We're meant to work together, not on our own!

Example through game

- C. The unity within the team members are just as important as the team itself.

II. Leading A Team

- A. We can be task-oriented or people-oriented.

- B. We can be process-focused or product-focused.

- C. We can be leaders or managers.

MANAGERS	LEADERS
Realistic	Vision
Deals with facts	Exercises faith
Strives for efficiency	Strives for effectiveness
Inspires fear	Inspires enthusiasm
Drives workers	Coaches members
Knows how it's done	Shows how it's done
Thrives on accomplishment	Thrives on opportunity

III. Bringing Out The Best Of Your Team

- A. Identify each member's strengths and weaknesses.

- B. Grant authority with responsibility.

Authority is based on judgments of character, motive and ability.

- C. Enjoy working and playing together.